

Scene 2

Your Grandfather's time is short, I'm sorry.

Vito, I need you to promise me something.

Anything

Finish what my generation began.

We fought hard.

But it wasn't enough.

Your generation, you,

must finish the war on Poverty.

But how...

This bill...

... will help millions of people living in poverty...

It just doesn't look like there's the politic support to pass it.

Our system, it has kept many in poverty but it can free them too.

Even in my time some politicians opposed the right things and we left it unfinished.

It is your time now

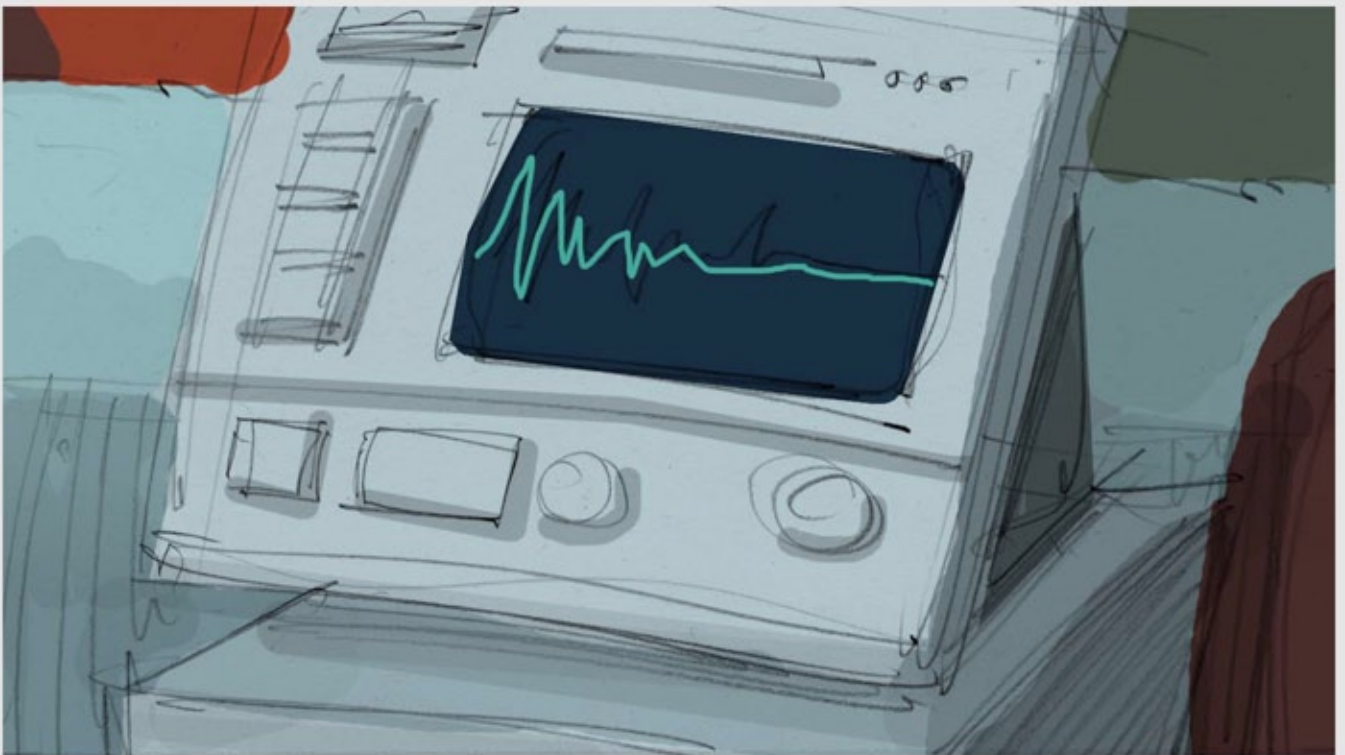

Those traitors!

Vito, the people are not the real battle, it is the poverty itself.
You must finish it.

but, but I can't do it alone....

Vito: "Nooo,...help!"
